

Happy LGBTQI Pride Month!

We honor, respect and celebrate the UO LGBTQI communities and Pride Month.

The end of classes, finals, graduation and break means there aren't many June pride or summer events on campus. However, below you'll find a few LGBTQI past spring and future summer events; campus and community resources; and Pride info and recommendations.

The photo on the right was taken at UO Coming Out week fall 2018. We will be there again in the fall and hope to see you all.

Pride Notes

Fifty years ago, on June 28, 1969, New York City police raided the Stonewall Inn a gay bar. Raids on gay bars were routine then, but this time patrons fought back. Riots ensued for days, helping to galvanize a growing LGBTQ movement.

The first NYC Pride Rally was one month after the Stonewall Riots in June 1969. Five hundred people gathered for a “Gay Power” demonstration and candlelight vigil. Learn about the Stonewall 50 Commemoration.

Did you know that the 1982 lesbian movie Personal Best starring Muriel Hemingway was filmed partially on Hayward Field and in Tracktown Pizza? The UO Libraries Oregon Digital collection has online photos from the film.

More coming about this in a UO LGBTQI story this summer.
