While many are not on campus, there are still many virtual offerings that you won't want to miss and info of interest. We send this along knowing we may be physically distanced but we have much opportunity for socially gathering and connecting.

May the turning of the leaves make for good turns in all our lives. We thank you for your generosity and support. As always, reach out to us if we can be of assistance.

November
Native American Heritage Month

"Native American Heritage Month: A time of reflection, community building, and resilience in 2020"
African-American Workshop and Lecture Series

Upcoming Speakers

Ruth Simmons

November 18, 2020

12 - 1:15 PM

Civil Society’s Debt to Higher Education

Ruth Simmons is currently the president of Praire View A&M University. She has held numerous administrative and professorship positions, including as the first African American to be named President of an Ivy League university, where she established the University Steering Committee on Slavery and Justice to explore the university’s historical connection with the slave-trading industry.

Submit a question in advance to be addressed by Dr. Simmons

Emmanuel Akyeampong

December 1, 2020

5:30 - 7 PM

African and African American Relations,
Emmanuel Akyeampong is the Faculty Director of the Harvard University Center for African Studies and Professor of History and of African and African American Studies at Harvard University. He serves as the president of the African Public Broadcasting Foundation and co-founder and director of the International Institute for the Advanced Study of Cultures, Institutions and Economic Enterprise. He is the author of numerous books and scholarly articles.

Register to attend

Honorable Eric H. Holder

Watch the event video (for a limited time).

HB2864: Relating to cultural competence at post-secondary institutions of education

Read more on HB2864

Oregon Digital Summit on HB2864

UO Strategies groups highlighted in 2020 INSIGHT Into Diversity
Higher Education Excellence in Diversity (HEED) Award

Lyllye Reynolds-Parker Black Cultural Center's One Year Anniversary

Empowering students through guidance and mentorship. Stella-Marie Akindayomi, Academic Counselor and Black Student Retention Specialist

Black Studies Minor

Black Lives Matter: Campus and Community Resources, Information, Messages

L.A.C.E.* Resources

- Faculty Resources
- Student Resources
- Responding to Bias and Xenophobia
- Accessibility and serving people with disabilities
- Serving Rural Communities
- Necessary Trouble: Ally Work
- Ethics of Care
- Wellness for underserved populations and allies

*©Yvette Alex-Assensoh 2013
2020 CMAE
Virtual Cultural Study Halls

Tarea Time:
Tuesdays 3 - 5 PM

Native Study Hall
Monday's: 1:30 - 3:30 PM

Questions? Contact:
Norma Trefan or Katie Staton:

Asian, Desi & Pacific Islander Study Hall
Wednesdays 3 - 4:30PM

Virtual ADPI Study Hall Teams
Appointments

Super Soul
Tuesdays: 1 - 3PM

Super Soul Tuesday Teams
Appointments
A new UO page Combatting Racism: Listen. Learn. Act shares the theme introduced by the Common Reading Program. Throughout the year, there will be resources that provide opportunities to participate, contribute and move toward change. They also will highlight and elevate work to help create greater understanding of the full heritage of African Americans and BIPOC communities who endure racial injustice and continue with courage, contributions and creativity.
Museum's exhibit on Eugene's civil rights history goes digital

Avinnash Tiwari talks about Black Studies

Audrey Lucero talks about Latinx Studies

Gender Socialization in Chinese preschool children: the role of teachers
December 4, 2020, 2 - 3 PM
Virtual event
Heidi Shi

November 24, 6 to 7:30 PM
Online, Instagram
Sven Haakanson is the driving force behind the revitalization of indigenous culture in an isolated region of North America.

Robin Morris Collin
2020-21 O'Fallon Lecture:
“The Geography of Injustice and the Ecology of Reparations”
December 8, 2020
5:00 pm - 6:30 PM
via Zoom. Registration required.

The Geography of Injustice and the Ecology of Reparations
In The Press

Check your mailbox and the AtO website.
Here are a few articles of interest that appeared recently

- UO receives Higher Education Excellence in Diversity award
- StarTalk coaching provides support during challenging times
- Empowering students through guidance and mentorship
- New grant will expand COVID-19 testing in Latinx communities
- New initiative centered on women in sports gains momentum
- Professor is finding that a racist past is often left off monuments
- Law professor’s anti-racism efforts brings new initiative to Portland
- Researchers help Latinx students make post-high school plans
- Museum’s exhibit on Eugene’s civil rights history goes digital
Connect with us

DONATE