Winter term has been a great time to gather and celebrate; honor, listen and learn; and be in community. Below we highlight some of the past winter months.

With the daffodils bursting open around campus, we know spring quarter is nearly here with activities you won’t want to miss. We hope you can attend many. Check our website and social media for the latest.

Meanwhile, enjoy these last days of winter term and spring break. Before we know it graduation will be upon us - student success marching forward.

Winter Highlights

MLK Awards Ceremony and Luncheon

CODAC: Creating Connections

BE Series: April Reign #OscarsSoWhite

DEI Mardi Gras Celebration
Black Cultural Center:
Soul2Soul

Campus and community honor Black History Month in February

Women's Heritage Month celebrated throughout March

African American Workshop and Speaker Series
Derrick Bell Lecture, School of Law

"The Permanence of Racism: Race, Power and the Architecture of American Democracy."
Guy-Uriel E. Charles, Duke Law School Professor; co-director, Duke Law Center on Law, Race and Politics.
Remarks by Janet Dewart Bell

UO Today interview with Janet Dewart Bell, author of Lighting the Fires of Freedom: African American Women in the Civil Rights Movement.

Spring Events: Mark Your Calendars
May is Asian, Desi, Pacific Islander Month

June is LGBTQ Pride Month

Annual P.R.I.D.E (Proudly Recognizing Indigenous Devotion to Education) Awards
Honoring Indigenous Education

April 9 | 6 - 7 pm
Many Nations Longhouse

Nominations

An evening with Carrie Mae Weems:
Lecture, Remarks, & Honorary Degree Conferral
April 23 | 4:00 pm | Straub Hall, 156

Student Success Summit:
“Inspiration to Realization: Partnering for Every Student’s Success”

Angela Davis
April 30
April 24 | 8:30 am - 5 pm | Gerlinger Hall

Call for proposals closes on March 11

More details coming soon

---

African American Workshop and Speaker Series

Freeman A. Hrabowski

May 28

President of U of Maryland whose work focuses on science and math education, emphasizing minority performance and participation.

---

CMAE Graduation

June 14 | 9-10:30 am

Global Scholars Hall

Great Room

---

L.A.C.E. Up!

Love, Authenticity, Courage, Empathy

Showcase Oregon

May 4, 2020

- Luncheon Keynote address by Elizabeth Halimah, Associate Vice Provost of the University of California. "Building a Nurturing and Respectful Climate at the University of Oregon: Where We Have Been and Where We Are Headed"

- "Parade of Promising Practices" – breakout sessions with colleagues from across campus

- Workshop with Douglas Haynes, Vice Chancellor of the University of California, Irvine. "Embedding and Evaluating diversity, equity, and inclusion practices at the UO."

- "UWDC Redesign, What’s Next"—a listening session to evaluate the proposed UWDC redesign and to inform its proposed structure, outcomes, and potential for community building and professional development.

RSVPs and more details coming soon

---

On May 14, we will be asking YOU to help support the CMAE Resource Pond, where students can loan textbooks, calculators, laptops and iClickers - essential for success. Watch for more info on #DucksGive2020 and please consider a donation. Thank you!

More info on DEI website FFI: tstabin@uoregon.edu

Welcome!

Welcome Wagon Event!
March 10, 4-6 pm.
Elk Horn Brewery & Cider House

Build Bridges Across Communities
Meet new UO staff:
Jamar Bean
MCC Program Advisor

Ben McNulty
UOPD Director of Security & Support Services

Richard Cleare
Admissions Counselor
Office of Admissions

Mike Murashige
Writing Consultant
CODAC
mmurashi@uoregon.edu

Need info on coronavirus?
Got Questions?

UO Coronavirus Info page
In The Press

Check your mailbox and the AtO website for the latest and greatest. Below are a few articles of interest that appeared this winter.

- Renovation puts a shine on JSMA’s Soreng Gallery of Chinese Art
- Upcoming pub talk offers a peek into the world of female gamers
- Members of the UO community honored at annual MLK Awards
- Athletics to receive NCAA/MOAA diversity and inclusion award
- Duke law prof, Bell widow to speak at combined lecture
- UO to host regional conference on sustainability...
- Black History Month: Moving Forward
- Women’s Heritage Month celebrated throughout March
- Cultural Night to feature food, music and dancing

Staff Recommendations

- Just Mercy: A story of justice and redemption
- Websites for Health
  - Mirna Valerio
  - Jenny Bruso & Unlikely Hikers
Our Mad and Furious City
Guy Gunaratne

Staff tip! Check out the audio version to hear all the various accents.

Iconic Women To Celebrate This Women’s History Month

Hand-Written Ancient Mexican Recipes Can Now Be Accessed Online

Smithsonian Celebrates Native Women with "First Major" Exhibition

Pachinko Min Jin Lee

Division of Equity and Inclusion | inclusion.uoregon.edu

Connect with us